

PASADENA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT
OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

October 16, 2017

I, Brian McDonald, Superintendent of Pasadena Unified School District, confirm the following:

Lactating students in the Pasadena Unified School District will have the following rights:

- Passes for bathroom use as needed
- Additional time for class changes, nutrition, and lunch
- A reasonable amount of time to accommodate the need to express breast milk or breast-feed
- Access to a private and secure room to express breast milk or breast-feed
- Access to a power source for a breast pump or any other equipment used to express breast milk
- Access to a place to store expressed breast milk safely
- An opportunity to make up work missed due to the use of accommodations

These rights are outlined in Know Your Rights: Pregnant and Parenting Students resource found on the Child Welfare Attendance and Safety web page. This resource is available at school sites.

---

Brian McDonald, Ed.D.
Superintendent