UNUM EOI (Evidence of Insurability) online

We're glad to see you've enrolled in one or more of the benefits we offer through Unum. To complete your application, there's one more thing you need to do. Please follow this link to answer a few health questions:

- Link: <https://securehealth.unum.com/eoiaccess>
- Access code: GM1WJGX

NOTE:

EOI is typically needed when an applicant requests more than the guaranteed issue coverage amount, enrolls outside their initial enrollment window, or was previously declined for coverage.

Guaranteed Issue:

Employee: $200,000.00

Spouse: $50,000.00

Child: $10,000.00

IMPORTANT

Please have the following information on hand:

- Your Social Security Number, date of hire, phone number and email address, as well as spouse/child dates of birth (for spouse/child coverage).
- Type of enrollment (please email benefits@pusd.us you're not sure)

Annual re-enrollment: I am electing coverage during the annual enrollment period.

Newly eligible: This is the first time I have been eligible for coverage.

Late entrant: I did not apply when I was first eligible

Status change: There has been a change in my family status (marriage, birth, etc.)

Coverage increase: I am electing a higher level of coverage

- If applying for Life Insurance:

The total benefit amount requested (the amount you already have in force plus the new amount being requested)

The benefit amount requiring medical questions for each applicant (this is the difference between the total benefit amount you requested and the guaranteed issue amount – ask me if you have questions).

- Medical information such as height and weight (not required for children); medical treatment dates, duration, and treatment received; medications and dosages; and names and addresses of physicians and hospitals.

You can also call Unum if you have any questions at 1-800-421-0344 (Monday – Friday, 8 a.m. – 8 p.m. ET).
