Week of 10/28 ~ 11/01/19

"Find something you're passionate about and keep tremendously interested in it."
~Julia Child

On Wednesday, October 23rd, our students wore orange to recognize "Unity Day." On this day, people all over the world demonstrated their pledge against bullying and commitment to kindness, acceptance, and inclusion. Our Principal for the Day, Sara Hatch from the Junior League of Pasadena, wore orange, too!

"In an opera, the poetry must be the obedient daughter of music."

~Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1781)

Above: Thanks to the generosity of the Pasadena Opera Trust, our K-5th grade students enjoyed a tale from long ago written by Jacques Offenbach: The Tales of Hoffmann (1881).

Above: Sara Hatch was greeted by some of our new Student Council members!

Meaningful learning is enhanced with unique experiences that inspire the imagination...

Top left and bottom right: Illustrator and animator Christian Robinson explained how he comes up with ideas to bring stories to life with his artwork.

Top right: Our very own Rachel Black teaches our students to cook and appreciate the Three Sisters: beans, corn, and squash.

Bottom left: All Jackson Magnet students enjoyed the Orange County Opera Club's performance of The Tales of Hoffman.
