

ANNOUNCEMENT

March 7, 2016

TO BE POSTED IN EVERY CLASSROOM

Happy Birthday to: Elizabeth Calderon, April Joiner, Fabrizzio Paz, Andrew Teon & Magny Villalta.

(If you do not want your birthday announced, let Ms. Nuño know in the student center).

Daily announcements are available for all to read in the Student Center.

Congratulations to our Freshman Future Problem Solvers Team of Sylvie Bower, Kylan Dennis and Alan Sitzman! They have qualified to compete at the state level.

Misc.:

1. The panorama photos are ready for pick-up in Ms Martinez class room 1136. There are also 8 more available for purchase, first come, first serve.

2. The University of Santa Barbara College Link Outreach Program application is due this Friday, March 11th. This is truly a unique experience that allows students to see what college life could hold for them. Applications are available at the student center.
3. On Friday March 11th, No Boundaries becomes a host site for ArtNight Pasadena from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m., with lively student and teacher performances. Join us with your family, friends and the whole community to honor and celebrate our youth in this eleventh annual district-wide event.

4. AP exams are on sale now! Come and see Mrs. Chong during lunch or after school at the student store. You can work out a payment plan with her. Deadline to pay is March 11th.
5. March 24th - IB Personal Project Showcase Students visit with their classes (Periods 2-4) Evening Celebration/Dinner/Awards - Everyone is invited! (6-8pm). The personal project is a significant body of work produced over an extended period. It is a product of students' own initiative and reflects experience of the MYP. The personal project holds a very important place as the culminating endeavor of the programme. Projects are student-centered and student-driven; they enable students to engage in practical explorations through a cycle of inquiry and action. The project encourages students to reflect on their learning and the outcomes of their work – key skills that prepare them for success in further study, the workplace and the community. This event is not only the showcase of months of hard work on their projects, but also a celebration of years of academic, social, and personal development as IB MYP students.

6. The Delta Sigma Theta Sorority in collaboration with PCC, PUSD & other Community Partners presents the 13th Annual Young African American Women's Conference Your Life Matters.
