What Makes Our School Unique?

Marshall provides a rich and diverse cultural arts community and collaborates with local programs that support the interest of the school and the students. We are home to the Academy for Creative Industries (ACI); 70% of our student population is engaged in the arts; band, choir, drama, graphic arts (3D printing), orchestra, and visual arts.

At Marshall Fundamental High School, we believe in:

- Engaging students in rigorous instruction aligned to standards
- Supporting high expectations for all students
- Connecting with students both professionally and personally
- Partnering with parents for student success

Attendance Area and Open Enrollment

Marshall is not a school of residence, but a school of choice. Though there are no attendance boundaries, each year during the District's annual Open Enrollment process, fifty percent of projected openings are set aside for families residing within a prescribed preference zone who apply online for the school as their first choice. Please visit openenrollment.info for more information and www.pusd.us to confirm the preference zone. Please check openenrollment.info for more information, including how to apply online.
