

African American Parent Council

Alkebulan Cultural Center

1435 N Raymond Ave, Pasadena, CA 91103

Monthly Meeting: December 4, 6:00 p.m.

---

AAPC VISION

AAPC is a model coalition of collaborative parents, students, and communities. The AAPC respects and embraces the diverse cultures of our communities, facilitates educational equity and improvements in academic outcomes, values varied forms of parent involvement to foster the healthy development of all students, and provides the tools and skills necessary for families to access information to purposefully participate in a rapidly changing world

AAPC MISSION

To honor and embrace the identity and experiences of Pasadena Unified School District's African-American families, advocate for the cultural acceptance of all, and mobilize and engage all stakeholders to transform the system to ensure a high-quality education for every student.

AGENDA

1. Introductions –
  - a. Your Name, Your School Site (s) – celebrations/challenge
2. Review of Notes – October & November 2018
3. Updates –
  - a. Open Enrollment
  - b. Pasadena Sister Cities
  - c. Academic Boot Camp – coming in January
  - d. California Title 1 conference
  - e. Hackathon – hosted by STEAM CODERS (Feb/March)
4. Updates from focus area teams –
  - a. Building and Strengthening our Foundation – The AAPC School Sites
  - b. Living History for All
  - c. Community Building – recap the thanksgiving pot luck and discuss Juneteenth
  - d. Academic Goal and Data
5. Recommendations – SSC and LCAP
6. Planning for 2019 AAPC meetings – Discussion
7. Thank you for visiting the Alkebulan Cultural Center – Marjani Forte
  - a. ACC programing and Youth Art Camp
8. Site updates or needs – Site Representatives

Next Meeting – Tuesday, January 8th, 2018 @ 6:00 – at Jackson Elementary
593 W Woodbury Rd, Altadena, CA 91001