

African American Parent Council

Willard Elementary School

301 Madre St., Pasadena, CA 91107

Monthly Meeting: March 5, 2019 - 6:00pm-8pm

AAPC VISION

AAPC is a model coalition of collaborative parents, students, and communities. The AAPC respects and embraces the diverse cultures of our communities, facilitates educational equity and improvements in academic outcomes, values varied forms of parent involvement to foster the healthy development of all students, and provides the tools and skills necessary for families to access information to purposefully participate in a rapidly changing world

AAPC MISSION

To honor and embrace the identity and experiences of Pasadena Unified School District's African-American families, advocate for the cultural acceptance of all, and mobilize and engage all stakeholders to transform the system to ensure a high-quality education for every student.

AGENDA

1. Welcome from Dr. Baxter and the Willard AAPC - 5 Minutes
2. Introductions - your name and school site - 10 Minutes
3. Public Comment- 10 Minutes
4. Updates – 10 Minutes
 - a. NICs- Trudell Skinner
 - b. AAPC, UTP, District collaboration- Achievable Goal for under achieving AA students
5. Presentation – Achievement Gap, Curriculum and Data - Helen Hill & Nadirah Nayo - 45 Minutes
6. Updates from focus area teams – 20 Minutes
 - a. Building and Strengthening our Foundation – Washington Middle School had their first AAPC Meeting on Feb. AAPC had a parent resource table at the recent Black History Parade and Festival
 - b. Living History for All- Black Living History for All Living Wax Museum on May 7th at the District offices of PUSD
 - c. Academic Goals and Data
7. Site updates or needs- site representatives - 5 minutes
8. Recommendations to SSC and LCAP PAC and/or Equity - 15 minutes
9. District Updates – 2 minutes
 - a. The 2019 Young African American Women's Conference (YAAWC) Saturday, April 13, 2019
 - b. Financial Aid Workshop at Boys and Girls Club Wednesday, April 3rd

Next Meeting – Tuesday, April 2nd, 2019 @ 6:00 – at Don Benito - 3700 Denair St., Pasadena, CA 91107